

You are cordially invited to attend a Servier Canada Inc. sponsored CME entitled:

A Novel Approach to Managing Newly Diagnosed Chronic Venous Disease and Hemorrhoids

Speaker: Dr. Robert Tautkus MD
Family Medicine
Fellow of the Canadian Society of Phlebology

Objectives:

- 1) Understand the signs, symptoms and pathophysiology of Chronic Venous Disease (CVD) in Canada
- 2) Understand the signs, symptoms and pathophysiology of Hemorrhoids in Canada
- 3) Discuss the Venoprotective and Anti-inflammatory properties of new treatments for CVD and HD

Wednesday June 13, 2018

Holiday Inn Burlington
3063 South Service Rd, Burlington

6:30 p.m Registration & Discussion

Please RSVP directly on the website. Limited seating

In agreement with the most updated Rx & D Code of Conduct this invitation is extended only to healthcare professionals.

Members of the College of Family Physicians of Canada may claim 1 M2 credit for this unaccredited program