

Cigarettes and Sugar Don't Mix

Primary Learning Objectives/Topics

1. Review the impact of tobacco on diabetes development
2. Examine the impact of tobacco on morbidity and mortality
3. Discuss the importance of vascular protection in patients with type 2 diabetes
4. Review the role of pharmacotherapy in smoking cessation
5. Apply cessation counselling to different patient cases

Speaker Biography

professionals.

Michael Boivin is a clinical pharmacist consultant, continuing education developer and president of CommPharm Consulting Inc. He has developed in excess of 400 different continuing education activities for pharmacists, family physicians, physician specialists, nurses and other allied

Michael attained his Certified Diabetes Educator (CDE) and Certified Tobacco Educator (CTE) status in 2014. He obtained his Certificate in Travel Health (CTH®) from the International Society of Travel Medicine in 2015.

RSVP

Please register at <https://hdpha.ca/continuing-education/> by Thursday, September 13th. Register early as spaces are limited.

Sponsored by

is proud to host

Michael Boivin, RPh

Clinical Pharmacist
Consultant
CommPharm Consulting Inc.

Thursday,
September 20th

Michelangelo

Event & Conference Centre
1555 Upper Ottawa Street
Hamilton

6:30 p.m. Registration

7:00 p.m. Dinner &
Presentation

If you have any questions,
please call:

Mylène Paradis-Bryce
519.830.4890

or

Stephen VanderEnde
905.870.5686